

Business Today

Home PTI feed Story

RTI activist shot at in Muzaffarnagar

PTI Last Updated: May 15, 2019 | 09:43 IST

WE RECOMMEND

Asus Zenfone 6 first look: An innovative flagship

How a Sukhoi-BrahMos strike will make Pakistani airspace look like Swiss cheese

Muzaffarnagar (UP), May 15 (PTI) A right to information activist has been shot at by four unidentified men in Uttar Pradesh's Muzaffarnagar district, police said on Wednesday. Krishanpal had gone to the fields at Dhindhwali village on Tuesday evening when the four miscreants opened fire at him. The 35-year-old was rushed to a hospital in a serious condition, Superintendent of Police (City) Satpal Antil said. Prima facie, a complaint that Krishanpal had filed about illegal possession of government land is suspected to be the reason behind the attack, the officer added. PTI CORR HMB

MORE FROM THE AUTHOR

AI's A321 plane remains grounded after runway debris causes damage

HC junks plea for recounting of votes in case of VVPAT-EVM mismatch

DO YOU LIKE THIS STORY?

Like Share Tweet Share MAIL PRINT COMMENT

ECONOMY IN NUMBERS

GDP GROWTH	JOB GROWTH
UNEMPLOYMENT	INFLATION

DAILY NEWSLETTER

Get our best delivered to your inbox

Enter Your Name

Enter Your Email

India ▼

I agree to receive newsletters and marketing communications from BusinessToday via E- mail*

SUBSCRIBE

BUSINESS TODAY

Previous Story

Asian markets tick up after Trump tweets but uncertainty remains

Next Story

Pilots pushed Boeing to act after Lion Air crash: reports